

Teaching Writing To All Grade Levels

The Writing Process is Universal
to all
Grade Levels and Subjects.

It is a foundation to advanced reading comprehension.

It is a subject/content integrated program.

All subject matter teachers can utilize this process in their courses.

Counselors can use this process to help students think clearly and make choices.

This writing process resulted in 100% of all students in the Burnham Wood Charter Schools passing the TAKS Writing exams with over 45% achieving commended levels. The Training Workshop(w/binder purchase) contains actual lesson plan models, an interactive course survey and graphic organizers that will assist teachers in duplicating this process successfully in their own classrooms.
